

Why Suffer From Bronchial Asthma?

Simple Home Treatment Makes Breathing Easy.

Just because you start the day tired, listless, worn-out from loss of rest and the difficult breathing of bronchial asthma—do not think you have to stay this way long.

Be strong and well, breathe clearly and easily again by using this simple treatment known as Oxidase, the prescription of a Worcester, Mass., physician.

For any form of asthma where the bronchial tubes are irritated, the breathing action is really wonderful. Sufferers who can't breathe at night and who gasp for a good, clear breath will appreciate the rapid and comfort Oxidase gives.

Oxidase is a tablet, made from essential oils which when the patient dissolves in the mouth, almost immediately soothes the irritation, clears out the congested air passages and enables the sufferer to breathe easily and get a real comfortable night's sleep.

It is sold by L. G. Osmond, leading druggists, who agree to refund the full purchase price of the first package to any sufferer who does not obtain satisfactory relief. Asthmatic sufferers should give Oxidase a trial. It is harmless and inexpensive.

CONVENTION REPORTS GIVEN

BEFORE W. C. T. U. MEETING

The W. C. T. U. November meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur F. Wyman, 22 Court street.

The president, Miss Harriet G. Crook, presided and the service opened with singing, scripture reading and prayer.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. It was voted to contribute $5 toward the prohibition work in the state. The union is to secure literature to distribute among professional men, on large of reasonable salaries.

Other matters of interest were discussed, after which Mrs. Wyman gave a very interesting report of the first day's activities at the recent state convention held in New London.

She was much impressed with Rev. M. R. Genter's remarks and commented, making special reference to what he said the W. C. T. U. would mean in the coming days.

Mrs. Fields spoke of the convincing address of Mr. Hohenbuehl, telling of his experiences in Europe, and of the awakening interest in prohibition. The W. C. T. U. is a great factor in every country he visited. In Dresden alone they conduct 22 restaurants, that the citizens may have temperance places to take their meals in.

They are educating the people in Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Scotland and England, by handing temperance and prohibition posters in every conceivable place, and in several of those countries.

Scientific temperance is taught in the school. Wednesday evening's address was given by Miss Clara Frances Stoddard, director, senior, and was full of convincing and deep thoughts, only as one of such authority can talk on the effects of alcohol.

It was a very successful convention, and many prominent men and women from other organizations visited the convention and gave very encouraging words of greeting.

The business served delicious and delicious refreshments, which were enjoyed while the reports were given.

The election of officers resulted in the following: President, Miss Harriet G. Crook; secretary, Mrs. L. G. Osmond; treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Robinson.

The next meeting is to be held at Mrs. Joseph J. Fields' home.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

The word "Cop" we have just learned, is derived from the initial letters of the English "Constable of Police" of Sir Robert Peel's time; just as "Tip" you will remember, came from the sign "To insure promptness" over a receptacle for gratuities in an old eating place.—Boston Transcript.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Norwich, Thursday, Nov. 9, 1922.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.05 o'clock tonight.

Rockwell and company of New London have incorporated on a capital of $75,000.

The forty-third annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the diocese of Connecticut was held Wednesday at Hartford.

St. Mary's A. B. whist and social tonight. T. O. Ball, 8 o'clock—adv.

Rollin Rathbun caught 230 smelts in Palmer's cove at Naugatuck this week. This is the largest catch of smelts reported in the village this season.

Miss Grace Savary, for several years an operator at the office of the Western Automatic Telephone Co., has accepted a like position in the exchange at Pawtucket.

Robert Shovin, past commander of George M. Cole camp, Spanish War Veterans, of Groton, has been appointed state inspector by the Department of Connecticut.

The U. S. civil service commission announced an open competitive examination for junior engineer and deck officer on December 13 and 14. Entrance salary is $2,000.

Foresters' days, Nov. 16-17-18-19 at Olympic hall. Big doings. Come—adv.

Orders presenting the plans for the 15th anniversary of the First Company, Governor's Foot Guard, Sunday, November 12, have been issued by Major Clarence S. Wardsworth.

On the opening of the November term of the superior court at New Haven 34 new divorce suits were listed. Among the reasons set forth, 24 cases contain charges of desertion.

Between 20 and 30 members of the Connecticut Fox Hunters' club were at the Fox Mountain fish and game preserve Tuesday, the guests of Homer H. Judd and Charles H. Wilcox.

The sixty cadets at the United States Coast Guard Academy at Port Trumbull informal dances at the first of a series of informal dances at the academy a week from this Saturday, Nov. 18.

Don't forget the Foresters' fair Nov. 16, 17-18-19. Olympic hall. Come—adv.

The first flurry of snow this season was noted Monday at Quonset point, where the air, preceding the downpour of rain that followed during the night.

In connection with the Odd Fellows' meeting at Central Village an excellent musical program was rendered by a male quartet, and a special orchestra, both consisting of members of the order.

Discussing the labor situation on the New Haven road, E. E. Hegan, superintendent, said Wednesday that the union we need in the mechanical department and in addition we have on file a number of applications.

Raymond J. Jodoin of Sprague, democrat, who ran for congress in the Second district, said Wednesday that he appreciated the support given him and that if he lived until 1924 he would again be a candidate.

Mrs. Frances Eaton, 55, fell down the entire length of the stairs at her home in Ellington, said Wednesday that she was badly injured, and was being treated at the hospital.

Scallops, oysters, clams, and a big variety of strictly fresh fish, no cold storage, Broadway Fish market, 49 Broadway—adv.

A party of Coventry people motored Wednesday evening to see the play "The Old Peabody Pew" at Storrs, under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star by the faculty of Connecticut Agricultural College.

Mrs. Berrien, wife of Capt. Frank D. Berrien, U. S. N., commandant of the Submarine Base, who recently underwent an operation at St. Raphael's hospital in New Haven, will be able to return home in a few days.

In regular monthly session at the Y. M. C. A. in New London the Woman's Auxiliary of the "Y" voted to pay off indebtedness of $100 of the $100 pledged last month toward the debt of the boys' summer camp at Lancaster Hill.

Coal stocks, both hard and soft, in the hands of retailers of the state October 1 were smaller between 50 and 74 per cent, the stocks on hand Nov. 1, 1921, according to figures announced by Federal fuel administrator C. E. Spens.

The tax collector's office will be open Thursday and Friday evening until 9 o'clock. Additions will be made as required by law after November 18—adv.

The new 15c stamp which will go on sale about Nov. 11th is the same shape and size as the present series and is printed with dark gray ink. The central design is the Statue of Liberty, with a part of New York harbor in the background.

Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion, has endorsed the call of the American Red Cross for new members and urged all members of the legion to aid in making the annual membership roll call of the organization a success.

The engagement is announced of Miss Katherine H. Campbell of Chicago, Ill., granddaughter of the late Dr. Robert D. McArthur, a prominent physician of Chicago, to George Dewey Godard, son of the late Dr. George S. Godard and Mrs. Godard, of Hartford.

If you live in Norwich out this advertisement and mail it to Plaut-Cadden Co., Norwich, together with your address. You will receive a book of old fashioned songs free—adv.

In order issued from the headquarters of the Twenty-sixth Division recently, First Lieutenant Leroy Johnson, Officers Reserve Corps, is assigned to the 34th Infantry and First Lieutenant Charles Allen relieved of his assignment to that regiment.

Payment on bills for the state and military tax, which were sent to all the towns and cities of the state the first of this month, have been rather slow. The total amount of the total amount of the state tax is $2,000,000 and that of the military tax $221,424.38.

A conference for the prevention of automobile accidents, called by the Automobile Club of Connecticut, was held in that city Wednesday afternoon. Speakers included Robbins B. Stoeckel, commissioner of motor vehicles, Charles J. Bennett, state highway commissioner.

The faculty of Trinity college have decided to allow the students a holiday November 11 to see the last game of the football season, which will be played with the Amherst college eleven at Amherst, Mass. The students amount of the holiday early last week.

Teacher—Does any pupil here know what a lease is? Well, Moses Finkelstein may tell us.

Moses—It's one of them things what fastens on yer and sucks yer life blood.

Teacher (remembering a recent exclamation of Moses)—That definition is about right.—Boston Transcript.

PERSONALS

Charles H. Harris of Salem was a visitor in Norwich on election night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Woodmansee and son Henry and Mrs. Mary Woodmansee of Plainfield were recent guests of Miss Charlotte Woodmansee of Rockville, R. I.

John Shea of Trenton, N. J., and Edwin Higgins of Boston have returned to their homes after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Edwards of Hingham.

William Crawford, and the Misses Frances and Veronica Crawford of Worcester, R. I., who have been the guests of Mrs. M. H. Donohue of Main street have returned to their homes.

FUNERALS

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning for Martin Cassidy from the home of his mother, Mrs. F. E. Cassidy, of 16 Laurel Hill avenue. At the services in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Miles P. Galvin was celebrant of the solemn high requiem mass, assisted by Rev. C. W. Brennan, deacon, and Rev. M. H. May as sub-deacon. Prof. F. L. Farrell presided at the organ and during the service Mrs. Farrell rendered, Abide With Me.

Burial was in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery. Father May conducting the committal service at the grave. The bearers were Daniel C. Hickey, James H. Dunn, Thomas P. Cummings, Frank Hartle, George H. Dolan and John Bolin.

Arrangements were by Cummings and Ring.

Capt. Jason L. Randall

The funeral services of Capt. Jason L. Randall took place at his late residence, 12 Ramsdell street, Groton, at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. J. M. C. A., the first of a course of four to be given at the association building during the winter months.

The course was opened by Edwin W. Hill, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who welcomed all to the entertainment, explaining that, as in the past, the Y had selected for the group of entertainments the best that could be secured. The opening member of the program brought forth Abram Chasins, pianist, and Miss Marie Caslowa, violinist, in First and Second Movements of Sonata.

By Caesar Frank and their execution of this difficult number was perfect, winning applause from a delighted house.

The next number was Misses' Aria from Carmen (Bizet), a soprano solo by Miss Ruth Williams, who with her execution delighted her audience.

The De Luxe Concert Group was made up of three artists of the musical world and throughout the concert delightedly entertained the audience with their selections in solo or duet in a manner that won praise from every music lover attending.

The first concert of the Y. M. C. A. course for the winter was expected, and more, and kept up the high quality of entertainments this association has brought to Norwich each winter.

The program of the evening was as follows:

First and Second Movements of Sonata, Caesar Frank.

Miss Caslowa and Mr. Chasins, Bizet.

Miss Williams, Chopin.

Walrus Brilliante, Moszkowski.

Caprice, Ernest Rubinstein.

Exaltation, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach.

The Gardener, Rob. Kahn.

Meditation from Thais, Massenet.

Maurice, Zarysky.

Caprice, Ernest Rubinstein.

Valise Caprice, Ernest Rubinstein.

Exaltation, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach.

The Gardener, Rob. Kahn.

Meditation from Thais, Massenet.

Maurice, Zarysky.